ANDREW BROUGHT PETER

JHN 1:38 En toe Jesus Hom omdraai en hulle sien volg, sê Hy vir hulle:

JHN 1:39 Wat soek julle? En hulle antwoord Hom: Rabbi—dit wil sê, as dit vertaal word, Meester—waar is U tuis?

JHN 1:40 Hy sê vir hulle: Kom kyk. Hulle het gegaan en gesien waar Hy tuis was en dié dag by Hom gebly. En dit was omtrent die tiende uur.

JHN 1:41 Andréas, die broer van Simon Petrus, was een van die twee wat dit van Johannes gehoor en Hom gevolg het.

JHN 1:42 Hy het eers sy eie broer Simon gekry en vir hom gesê: Ons het die Messías gevind—dit is, as dit vertaal word, die Christus.

JHN 1:43 En hy het hom na Jesus gelei. ...

ANDREW BROUGHT PETER

Andrew understood the importance of meeting the long awaited Messiah. It became the greatest discovery he had ever made. Those he cared about had to know about this. Peter must be told! Andrew dropped everything until he had introduced Peter to the Lord. This is how enthusiastic we ought to be about telling others of salvation through the Lord Jesus Christ. Often, however, the reality is the very opposite. Most Christians hardly ever bother telling others about salvation through the Lord Jesus Christ.

Have you really met the Lord? Are you really a Christian? A good way to find out is to check if you have a zeal that others must know about salvation through Jesus. If you do, chances are you have indeed found something special. But if you are quite happy to go on with your life whether people know about Jesus or not, something is seriously wrong somewhere. Either you have never really met Jesus, or, if you have, the whole thing is of such little significance to you it really doesn't matter if others come to know about Him or not.

The fate of this world is in your hands. Whether people enjoy eternity with God or are lost for eternity depends upon the way you are living right now. Desire to find people in heaven who got there because you told them about Jesus. God has left that great responsibility to you.

PRAYER: Lord, give me a burning desire to win people to Christ.
